

7th INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON

TAX ADMINISTRATION

20 and 21 April 2006

crowne plaza resort coogee beach
SYDNEY AUSTRALIA

This conference brings together academics, practitioners and leaders of revenue authorities from around the world to discuss and compare contemporary issues and research in tax administration.

Key themes for the conference include:

- International Issues in Tax Administration
- Self-Assessment
- Administration & Compliance Costs
- Compliance Behaviour
- Change Management
- Taxpayer Rights and Obligations
- Tax Decision Making & Dispute Resolution
- Tax Evasion
- Ethical Considerations & Effective Enforcement Strategies

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS INCLUDE:

Richard Highfield, Head, Tax Administration and Consumption Taxes Division
OECD Centre for Tax Policy and Administration.

Kim Bloomquist, Senior Economist in the United States Internal Revenue Service and winner of the OECD 2nd Jan Franke Tax Research Award.

Papers will be called for in September 2005

EMAIL: anna.b@unsw.edu.au (Anna Bartholomaeus) to place yourself on the mailing list for this prestigious event

Visit www.atax.unsw.edu.au/news/events.htm for information updates

Atax

UNSW

Faculty of Law

